

Java Developer

Overview

OBO Solutions is JourneyXP Development Partner in Pakistan. In OBO we are aiding JourneyXP a Copenhagen based software startup to help businesses win customers for life. In order to that we are developing the innovative software-as-a-service platform that automatically tailors perfect customer journeys across all available touch points. We are looking for a quality-driven Java Developer to join our multicultural development team. As a Java Developer in JourneyXP you will develop innovative solutions to our software challenges through the application of deep computer science experience. Your workplace will be located in our office in Islamabad.

Key Qualifications

- 3+ years of experience with Java
- Possess advanced NoSQL skills preferably with CouchDB/Cloudant
- Strong HTML5 skills
- Good practical experience with CSS
- Experience and good understanding of AngularJS
- Experience with Bootstrap
- Understanding of WebSphere Liberty profile Lite
- Experience in using Spring library to develop Java applications
- Experience in developing RESTful web Applications
- Use Jenkins and Ant to build software projects
- Proactive mind-set and ability to work independently as well as in a team environment
- English fluency

Experience Gains

- Building complex algorithms that validates the personalized experiences for each of our customers
- Working with the team to design user interactions that are simple, intuitive and implemented properly
- Architecting code for massive scale, high performance, and maximum security
- Engage in regular status updates to the development team

If you are who we are looking for send your CV and motivational letter to idin@obosolutions.com with a subject “Java Developer”.

idin@obosolutions.com

<http://www.obosolutions.com>

34, 3rd floor, Al Hameed plaza,
G 11 Markaz, Islamabad